

AGING AND THE SPIRITUALITY OF CHANGE

With

Fr. Terry Ryan, CSP

In her book, The Gift of Years, Joan Chittister reminds us that life does not end with retirement, the loss of loved ones, or moving to new surroundings. Daily work schedules can give way to a life of enlightenment, when aloneness can shift into solitude, where I choose to be with myself for the sake of the soul. We can become people of deeper understanding and forgiveness. The Presence of Divine Mystery can continue to fill us up and send us forth as we grow older in our spiritual transformation.
