

Richard Rohr OFM

Internationally known spiritual teacher and author, Richard Rohr, a Franciscan of the New Mexico province and founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation (CAC) in Albuquerque will speak on

"Contemplation & Action in the 21st Century"

Sunday, Feb 22, 2009 from 1:30 to 4:30pm

St. Ignatius Catholic Church

Jesuit University of San Francisco (USF)

650 Parker Ave (corner of Parker & Fulton)

University parking available on Parker—Bus transportation on Fulton

Based on his lifelong ministries to women, men and young people on a spiritual path, to prison inmates, to the powerless seeking social and political justice, to people with alcohol, substance and other addictions, to males seeking a deeper spirituality in their lives, Fr. Rohr will draw deeply from his Christian contemplative roots and personal action to communicate his unique and engaging 21st Century gospel message of personal healing, abiding inner peace and practical ways to daily live the message.

Suggested donation $25/advance or $35/door

Groups purchasing 6 paid tickets will receive 1 free admission. All University and High School students free with student/school ID.

To pre-register at $25, make check payable to "Contemplative Outreach of SF" & mail check to Mary Wyman, Event Coordinator, 202 Roosevelt Way, San Francisco, CA 94114

For more info, mary.wyman@yahoo.com

Co-sponsored by

Contemplative Outreach of San Francisco & USF's Dept. of Theology & Religious Studies

Proceeds to benefit Contemplative Outreach Prison Ministry in northern California prisons